

Project Brief: Hippos Hot dogs Website

My family has a restaurant down in Troy where they need a new website. They need to have a website with their location, menu, prices and pictures of their food. They would like the website to have links to their social media accounts. The design should be simple and in coordination with the company colors and company tone.